Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty and concern for one's fellow man; and,

WHEREAS, Claricie Collins has been employed at the University of South Dakota's Alumni Association since 1965, and for the last 23 years as the association's executive director; and,

WHEREAS, Claricie has devoted her life to the betterment of her community, the caring and sharing with family and friends and the day-to-day giving and loving which make South Dakota a great state in which to live and work; and,

WHEREAS, On July 26, after 24 years of service to the University of South Dakota and this great state, Claricie is retiring and taking to the woods in Rogers, Arkansas, to braid rugs and commune with nature; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper as Governor to make note of this outstanding South Dakotan who has represented the university and the State of South Dakota well:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim July 26, 1989, as in South Dakota, and I join her many friends and relatives in wishing her an enjoyable retirement and good luck in the future.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Thirteenth Day of July, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Nine

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
